

FIGHT NIGHT

SEPTEMBER 30, 2017

JW MARRIOTT

Christamore House Fight Night

The Christamore House Fight Night- an Amateur Boxing Match, Christamore's largest fundraiser, is a partnership between Christamore House and the Christamore House Guild. The 2017 Fight Night is a night of fun and amateur boxing bouts featuring boxing clubs from around the Midwest including the historic Christamore House Boxing Program, World Beaters. Since hosting the event 6 years ago, more than $100,000 has been raised for our youth development and family programs with net proceeds supporting programs to improve the lives of children and families in the Haughville community and on the Near Westside.

About Christamore House

Christamore House, one of the oldest nonprofits in Indy, was founded in 1905 by two Butler College graduates, Edna Stover and Edith Surbey and was located on Columbia Avenue until its Board of Directors decided to move Christamore House to Haughville, a near Westside industrial town in 1920. Today, Christamore House serves as a pillar of strength in the community and provides the very best child and youth educational services, senior programming, and life skills training to the residents of Haughville and the Near-Westside. The Christamore House, through education, partnerships and accountability, empowers the people of Haughville and the near Westside to be self-sufficient and contributing members to a safe and healthy community.

The House does this by offering an array of services that: 1) stabilize individuals who are at risk of hunger and homelessness; 2) ensure that school readiness is provided for preschool-age children; help teens and adults secure gainful employment; 3) provide financial literacy education to area residents; 4) provide seniors with an engaging place to call their own; 5) ensure that school-age and teenage youth have academic and recreational alternatives during after school hours and summer months; and 6) play an important role in making the Haughville neighborhood a vibrant and safe place for all of its members. Christamore House is unique from other agencies in that it is the only community center in the Haughville neighborhood offering programs to address the needs of all members in the family, from early childhood education to senior services and the only Community center with an in-house STEM lab complete with 3D printers.

About Christamore House Guild

The Christamore House Guild, founded in 1908, is a not-for-profit organization of women committed to voluntarism and charitable fundraising in support of the Christamore House. Through the years the Guild has grown from a small group of women working with immigrants settling in the Haughville area, to a thriving service organization of more than three hundred active and associate members. For the past 37 years, the Guild's notable fundraiser, the Indianapolis Book and Author Luncheon, has raised over $2 million and benefitted over 1000 scholarship recipients of the Francis Carter Coburn Scholarship Fund as well as enriching the programming of the youth at the Christamore House.
