

Dina Silver

No Time to Blink

Lake Union

Told from alternating points of view — that of a daughter whose past is a mystery and of a mother with painful secrets to share — this moving story of impossible risks will resonate with anyone whose love has no boundaries.

Catherine defied her family’s expectations when she married Gabriel, a handsome Lebanese man. After moving to Gabriel’s homeland and welcoming a baby daughter, Catherine knew she had to acclimate herself to the strange new world. Yet both her husband and her surroundings became more threatening than she could have imagined.

When Gabriel forbids her to return to the States, Catherine devises a plan to deceive him, but she underestimates how far he will go to punish her. And after her daughter is abducted and taken into the mountains of Beirut — protected by family, culture, and law — the only thing on Catherine’s side is the fierceness of a mother’s love. She’s prepared to move heaven and earth to find her child.

“A moving tale capturing the unbreakable bond between mothers and daughters. Silver deftly weaves through past and present, betrayal and forgiveness, culminating in a fast-paced, satisfying finish.” — Rochelle Weinstein, USA Today bestselling author of Somebody’s Daughter
